A building for tomorrow in a city for today

A leading name in mixed-use development and urban regeneration

To deliver One City Park, City of Bradford Council is partnering with Muse, one of the UK's leading names in mixed-use development and urban regeneration, with a range of major commercial and residential schemes across the country, and a strong track record of delivering HQ office buildings.

With over 30 years' experience in delivering high-quality places and spaces where people can live, work and relax, Muse is well placed to bring sustainable, transformational change to Bradford.

Welcome to Bradford's vibrant business community

Lee Craven Bradford Live

Lee is Managing Director of Bradford Live and the driving force behind the project to save the city's historic Odeon cinema, repurposing it as a 3,800 capacity world-class events venue.

Amir Hussain Yeme Architects

Amir is CoE (Chief of Everything) at Yeme Architects, a Member of Council at Bradford University and an Advisory Board Member at the National Science and Media Museum.

Why Bradford?

“In its heyday Bradford built some spectacular buildings. To bring one of the greatest back to life in partnership with one of the world's best live events operators shows great confidence in the city's future.”

Why Bradford?

“I have always found doing business in Bradford highly encouraging because the pivotal people and organisations are accessible. There's a genuine enterprising spirit and ongoing potential about the city.”

A bright future

Bradford boasts a rich history, a truly international community, and a young, forward-looking population, making the city one of the most compelling places to do business in the UK. The area's globally-recognised higher education provision and AI/healthcare tech hub further underscore its future as a centre of commercial and creative excellence.

Arrive in style

Thoughtfully designed, the impressive entrance to One City Park is the perfect introduction for visitors to this exceptional building.

Design and craftsmanship

One City Park is a state-of-the-art building with 29,255 sq ft (2,718 sq m) NIA of Grade A office space remaining, raising Bradford's profile as a destination city. Designed with sustainability at its core, the striking steel and glass structure is set to attract burgeoning local business as well as national and international names. With a growing young and diverse population that's highly qualified and proud to call the city home, One City Park will lead the way for Bradford to be seen in a new light.

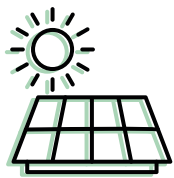

Office with a view

From the Grade I Listed grandeur of Bradford City Hall to the classical Victorian structure of the Alhambra Theatre, the views from the expansive roof terrace across Centenary Square's mirror pool take in the architectural icons of the city.

Smart & sustainable

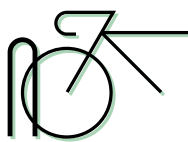

Sustainability is at the top of the agenda for the construction, making sure One City Park goes beyond simply being green.

Photovoltaic solar electricity panels on the roof will capture the sun’s energy and convert it into electricity to help power the building.

Air source heat pumps will provide low carbon heating by extracting warmth from the air around the building.

City Park is easily accessible by public transport and, with secure cycle parking, high quality end-of-trip facilities including showers and lockers, as well as electrical vehicle charging in the car park, there are multiple options for low carbon travel.

The development is designed to assist with supporting local biodiversity through the planting of diverse tree species and the inclusion of nest boxes for birds.

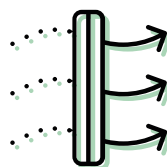

High-performance glazing to the façades will maximise natural light but reduce solar gain

Low flow sanitary ware significantly reduces water consumption throughout the building

BREEAM®

The building is targeting a BREEAM Excellent rating.

The building has been carefully designed to optimise the experience of users, with a focus on air quality, daylight and the creation of high quality public realm spaces.

Encouraging low carbon travel

In line with creating a sustainable ecosystem within the complex, One City Park provides internal secure bike storage with lockers, and shower facilities.

Capital of Cycling, a Bradford-based charity that works to promote cycling in the city, is conveniently located in the city centre and offers confidence-building sessions and maintenance.

High-specification cycle spa with generous storage for users

Custom-designed bike storage and maintenance area

Something for everyone

Across 56,403 sq ft (5,240 sq m) NIA of dedicated space, One City Park offers the widest range of amenities of any commercial building in Bradford, designed to maximise productivity and wellbeing for those who work here.

The City

Transformational culture

The Broadway shopping centre offers all the leading high street names while North Parade houses exciting independent bars and eateries. The Alhambra Theatre attracts West End musicals and touring theatre and live events. Formerly the Bradford Odeon, the magnificent original Art Deco building is being restored as a world-class venue for music and business operated by the NEC group.

Re-imagining the city

A number of key regeneration schemes are under way that will bring upgraded amenities to the city centre and attract a new audience of people to visit and live in the area close to One City Park.

BRADFORD LIVE

Only a short walk from One City Park, Bradford Live is one of the biggest regeneration schemes in Bradford's recent history and will see the historic Odeon cinema, empty for more than 20 years, brought back to life as a world class live music and events venue. Holding up to 4,000 people, the venue will host national-scale events and will be run by leading live event operator, NEC Group.

DARLEY STREET MARKET

Darley Street Market will be built on the site of the former Marks & Spencer store and will revitalise this area of the city centre by bringing innovative new retail including an outdoor trading area and an open plan food court. The new market will release space to provide a development opportunity for new city centre living.

Centre of it all

With restaurants, shopping and leisure facilities all close-by, One City Park is perfectly positioned a short walk from the best of Bradford.

Watch the film

By providing new, high-quality and flexible office space, One City Park will allow us to not only retain exciting home-grown businesses but also to attract prestigious organisations from outside the region to the city centre.

On the back of Bradford being awarded UK City of Culture 2025, giving the green light for One City Park is another exciting step in our plans to support the next stage of our city's growth and ambition.
